

Here's few alternative ways to celebrate Easter this year

Egg Hunt Ideas

- Invite your neighbourhood families to decorate large Easter eggs on paper and tape them onto your front window or hang them from trees in your front yard
- Hide eggs in your neighbours' front yard so the next time they go outside they can see that they've been "egged"
- Hide eggs in your front yard, take a panoramic photo, and send it to other family members and see who can find the most

Decorating Eggs

- Keep it simple: Draw a large oval on a blank sheet of paper and cutting it out or searching for "Easter egg coloring pages" online
- Be creative: make Easter eggs out of recycling items ~ chalk your driveway with eggs ~ paint your windows
- No eggs?: paint rocks in bright colors, make string eggs with balloons, divaofdiy.com

Bake something sweet

- Try a new dessert recipe that will be just as fun to make as it will be to eat
- Pick two Easter desserts and divide the family into teams to see which recipe everyone likes better ~ the biggest face-off of the season could be between Team Cookies and Team Cake
- Try the Giant Easter Egg Cookies or Easter-themed cake at www.delish.com

Focus on small-scale Easter games

- Focus on games (beyond the egg hunt) your family can play together
- Guess the number of jellybeans or Easter egg basketball, even if you only have one or two kids in the family
- For older kids, give your favorite family games an Easter spin: play Scrabble with all Easter- or spring-themed words

Easter Services in Pender Harbour

- Pender Harbour Community Church – an online Easter service will be posted on Saturday night; to receive the link, email kathylbergman@gmail.com
- Christ The Redeemer Anglican Church - an Easter video will be available via Facebook this Sunday: @redeemerpender

Wishing you & your family a Happy Easter
